An Andalucian Affair 2017

- an adventure from our backyard -

An Andalusian Affair 2017

10 days & 9 nights

The typical image people have of Spain - the vibrant flamenco dancer in a bright-colored dress, singing in a white washed patio of a tiny village surrounded by a sea of olive fields under a crystal blue sky - no doubt comes from Andalucía. However, there is much, much more to this part of Spain. In addition, we'll explore serene garden palaces at the foot of snow-capped mountains, cool dense shaded pine forests, quiet trout river paths and magical buzzing cities...and yes, all under a crystal blue sky!

 Please note: this itinerary is subject to slight modifications due to hotel availability, weather, festivals & other occurrences*

Day 1: Córdoba and the Magnificent Mezquita

We meet in Córdoba and welcome you to your Fresco Tours Vacation. After a short orientation meeting, we take to the streets to see the one-time cultural capital of the Western World, Córdoba. Here our local guide will lead us through the fascinating Mezquita, started in the 8th-century. Its mesmerizing forest of pillars capped with horseshoe arches and its uniquely integrated 16th century Cathedral create an unforgettable contrast.

Accommodation: Córdoba

Day 2: La Subbética, the Heart of Andalucía

Today, we enter into the hills of the Subbética Natural Park south of Córdoba. Our day begins as we stop at one of the finest olive oil manufacturers in Spain to learn about the process of extracting this liquid gold. Afterwards, we lace up as our walk takes us through vast olive tree groves and past the picturesque village of Zuheros de la Sierra. We finish the day by shuttling to Granada, where Ferdinand and Isabella celebrated the completion of the Reconquista in 1492.

Accommodations: Granada / Walking: 13 KMs or 8 miles

Day 3: Magical Granada and the Alhambra

After a delicious breakfast, we begin to explore Granada by investigating the UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Alhambra. Our local historian recounts the splendors of this palace city that was built in the 13th and 14th century. Once inside the Patio of Lions, one can understand why this is the second most visited monument in Europe as our imagination takes us to another era. We finish the night with a fine meal in the hilly and winding streets of the Albayzin with unmatched views of the Alhambra!

Accommodation: Granada

Day 4: Strolling the Sierra Nevada

After a day of city walking, we slip back in our boots for some fresh air in the Sierra Nevada, Europe's second highest mountain range after the Alps. As we stick to the foothills of the lower valleys, we will be able to contemplate the magnificent views of this rugged and extensive National Park. As a reward for our hike, we return to Granada for an evening of shopping and delicious tapas!

Accommodation: Granada / Walking: 13 KMs or 8 miles

Day 5: Los Pueblos Blancos and Ronda

Leaving Granada, we make our way through the famous pueblos blancos (White Villages) where we do a short hike along a goat path into the hills. After lunch, we then head up to Ronda, a Hemingway favorite, to admire the spectacular Puente Nuevo, which straddles the 100m deep Tajo gorge. We also make a visit to the Plaza de Toros, one of Spain's oldest bullrings.

Accommodation: Ronda / Walking: 5 KMs or 3 miles

Day 6: Grazalema National Park

This morning we discover the Natural Park of the Sierra de Grazalema, declared a Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO in 1977. Our walk takes us among the unique fir tree, el pinsapo. Survivor of the last Ice Age, this rare tree is only found in remote areas of southern Spain and northern Morocco. After a delicious lunch, we continue to the town of Ronda.

Accommodation: Ronda/ Walking: 11 KMs or 7 miles

Day 7: Costa de la Luz

Hopping in the van, we head to the spectacular Costa de la Luz, lesser known than the Costa del Sol, this area is less commercial and still has the charm of tiny fishing villages. We start the day with a coastal walk that takes us through protected pine forests. Here we may catch the glimpse of a little fishing boat heading out for sardines or anchovies, just as they have been doing for centuries! In the evening, we rest our tired legs with a glass of light white wine!

Accommodation: Jerez / Walking: 10 KMs or 6 miles

Day 8: Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art

An exciting morning, we first visit the Museum of Equestrian Arts to learn about the important role of the Jerez-bred Carthusian horses. Next, we are treated to a spectacular exhibition where we witness these horses dancing. Afterwards, we sample some of Jerez's other famed prize - sherry wine in the old quarter of town!

Accommodation: Jerez

Day 9: Seville, Soul of the South

After breakfast, we say goodbye to Jerez and transfer to Andalucía's soul - Seville! Here the electricity and passion of the South come together and make this city alive with an unmistakable energy. We will have a walk around town, but remember to take a siesta, because after our farewell dinner, the evening continues as we are treated to a powerful, exciting, Gitano-inspired Flamenco show!

Accommodation: Seville

Day 10: Seville

This morning begins with a guided tour by our local expert, who provides us with the insights to Seville's Cathedral, one of the largest in the world, the splendid Alcázar (Moorish fortress) and the charming Old Center. The tour finishes at noon, when we say our hasta pronto (till your next Fresco Tour) and muchas gracias!
