El Kinder Camino Portugués Tour 2018

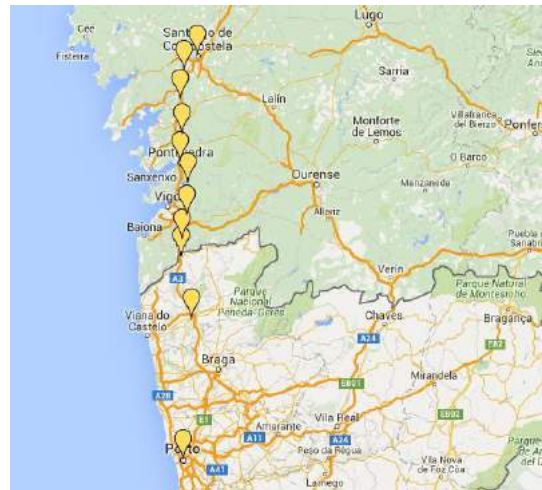

11 days & 10 nights: The Last 118 KMs to Santiago

Come join us on our kinder version of the Camino Portugués! We'll enjoy the same charming scenery of the Iberian Peninsula, but at a lighter, gentler pace. Our good friend, the yellow arrow, will keep us company as we cross over the River Miño and enter into Spain. Our Camino also takes us through the town of Padrón, where Santiago's stone boat brought him back to Spain.

Day 1: Porto to Ponte de Lima

We pick-up the group in the afternoon in Porto, which sits on the banks of the "River of Gold". A brief shuttle later and we are in the quiet country side of Portugal, where we sit down for our Orientation Meeting and discuss our next week ahead on the Camino de Santiago. We close out our first day with a fine meal of Portuguese cuisine...and perhaps a glass of vinho verde!

Accommodations: Ponte de Lima (D)

Day 2: Ponte de Lima

Today we hit the trail and have a warm up of our week to follow. We start our journey in Seara, stopping to admire the Chapel of A Senhora das Neves before crossing over the beautiful Roman bridge that gives the town of Ponte de Lima its name. This is a short walk, mostly downhill, and will be a good way to stretch our legs for the days ahead. We finish in the lovely river valley town of Ponte de Lima.

Accommodations: Ponte de Lima (B,L,D) / Walking: 6KMs or 4 miles

Day 3: Valença to Orbenlle

From the fortress town of Valença, we cross over the River Miño and enter into Spain. As both Portugal and Spain are European Union members, the only passport you'll need is your Pilgrim's Passport, but remember that the word for stamp will change from carimbo to sello. Once across the border, we admire the 12th century Santa Maria Cathedral in Tui.

Accommodations: Tui (B,L,D) / Walking 12KMs or 7 miles

Day 4: Orbenlle to Mos

In the morning, we pass through O Porriño, a town known for its unique city hall architecture and its prized granite cutting mills. We continue on to Mos, where the Louro River and the quiet Galician countryside keep us company before returning for another lovely evening in Tui. (B, L, D)

Accommodations: Tui (B,L,D) / Walking: 15 KMs or 9 miles

Day 5: Mos to Arcade

Today we get the blood pumping with a good climb up to the Monte de Santiago de Antas, where we find another Roman mile marker to remind us that we are getting closer. The Camino then takes us to Redondela. Here we get our first glimpse of the Estuary of Vigo, where mussels and scallops are farmed on floating barges!

Accommodations: Pontevedra (B,L,D) / Walking:
17 KMs or 10 miles

Day 6: Arcade to Pontevedra

Our walk takes us by the beautiful stone arches of the old Ponte Sampaio, the scene of an important town battle against Napoleonic troops in 1809. Back in Pontevedra for the evening, we must stop in and get a stamp at La Peregrina, the 18th century chapel whose floor is in the shape of a scallop shell!

Accommodations: Pontevedra (B,L,D) / Walking:
13KM or 8 miles

Day 7: Pontevedra to El Parque Natural de Ria Barosa

Leaving the city of Pontevedra, we quickly return to nature, crossing through quiet, wooded paths where we come to the granite Cross of Amonisa with the carved figure of Santiago facing our destination. We finish our day in Caldas de Reis, whose natural thermal springs have made this a place to soak your weary feet for thousands of years.

Accommodations: Caldas de Rei (B,L,D) / Walking: 18KMs or 11 miles

Day 8: El Parque Natural de Ria Barosa to San Miguel

Wander along the Camino through one of Galicia's best treasures today: the pleasant vineyards that produce the Rias Baixas region's most popular white wine, Albariño. A favorite story, but with little truth, is that the Albariño grape was brought to the region by German pilgrims on their way to Santiago. While it's true origin remains a mystery, its flavor continues to captivate many.

Accommodations: Padrón (B,L,D) / Walking: 18KMS or 11 miles

Day 9: San Miguel to Rua de Francos

Padrón (or pedrón – Galician for big stone) pays homage to the famous rock where the boat that contained Saint James was moored to upon its arrival from Jerusalem after he had been martyred. Padrón is also famous in culinary circles for its little green peppers, some which are hot and others that are not.

Accommodations: Padrón (B,L,D) / Walking: 18KMS or 11 miles

Day 10: Rua de Francos to Santiago de Compostela

8 days, 118 kilometers, and we have arrived in Santiago de Compostela. Congratulations! You are going to love this magical city filled with fantastic monuments and a lively buzz from the international pilgrims and university students that fill its medieval streets. After requesting our Compostela certificates at the Pilgrims' Office, we head to our hotel and get ready for our evening celebratory dinner!

Accommodations: Santiago de Compostela (B,L,D) / Walking: 12 KMs or 7 miles

Day 11: Santiago de Compostela

After a buffet breakfast, our local historian gives us a closer look at the amazing Cathedral that has seen so many transformations since the original chapel built in the 9th century. After the tour, we sadly say our last "buen camino" as we leave you at the Cathedral in time for the Pilgrims' Mass at noon. (B)

The Compostela & the Camino de Santiago Tour

This itinerary gives you the opportunity to walk the last 100KM into Santiago. This is a requirement needed to request the compostela, the certificate granted by the church of Santiago upon the completion of the pilgrimage. It is not mandatory, however, to walk 100km (60 miles) to participate in this Fresco Tour. As with all our trips, your walk is accompanied by a support van and shorter walk options are available on a daily basis.

Please note: this itinerary is subject to slight modifications due to hotel availability, weather, festivals & other occurrences.*
