AUGUST 12th, 2026

A total solar eclipse on the Camino

On August 12th, there will be a total solar eclipse across most sections of the Camino de Santiago in Spain. During a total solar eclipse, the Moon moves between the Earth and Sun, completely obscuring the Sun.

At Fresco Tours we are ready for this once-in-a-lifetime event.

Join us on our Chapter 1 - The Beginning of the Camino tour and experience the total solar eclipse on the French Way.*

*Weather and meteorological conditions permitting

Chapter 1 – The Beginning of the Camino

Total Solar Eclipse Tour

August 6th to 16th, 2026 - 11 days & 10 nights

All good endings start with a great beginning, and all good solar eclipses require a great Camino tour!

We start our Camino at the border of Spain in the Pyrenees. On this journey, we come down from Roncesvalles into Hemingway's Pamplona, stroll through the vineyards of La Rioja, and pass through hilltop villages connected by Roman Roads.

We will also experience the total solar eclipse at a convenient location near the Camino de Santiago.

Day 1, August 6th: Pamplona & Roncesvalles

In the afternoon, we meet the group in Pamplona for a private transfer to the foothills of the Pyrenees. We start our Camino with a walk up and down into Roncesvalles, where we attend a moving Pilgrim's Mass. The blessing at the end is an appropriate way for us to start our journey. Afterwards, we have our first night's feast – perhaps some trout, like the ones Hemingway used to catch in the local river!

Accommodation: Roncesvalles (D) / Walking: Walking: 4 km or 2.5 mi

B=Breakfast, L=Lunch & D=Dinner

Day 2, August 7th: Roncesvalles to Linzoáin

Leaving our hotel, we follow the yellow arrow through pastures and fields that make this part of Basque Navarra so famous for its local fresh produce. We walk by "caseríos", giant stone farmhouses that have been in the same family for generations and generations. Tradition is the theme here! Our day ends at the town's "fronton", the court where Basque Pelota is enjoyed by the youngsters!

Accommodation: Zubiri (B, L, D) / Walking: 14 km or 9 mi

Day 3, August 8th: Linzoáin to Zuriain

After a good morning climb and descent, we come across the Gothic bridge known as “La Rabia,” which was used by farmers in a ritual to prevent their livestock from developing rabies (rabia) in Zubiri. We continue to Larrasoaña, a town with strong ties to the Camino as it was mentioned in the 12th century Codex Calixtinus, the official Camino guidebook of the time! Keep an eye out for several Jacobean signs and armor shields on the stone buildings.

Accommodation: Pamplona (B, L, D) / Walking: 17 km or 11 mi

Day 4, August 9th: Zuriain to Pamplona

A lighter day in the boots, we work our way into Pamplona, where we come across the 15th century Cathedral of Santa María la Real, with its beautiful cloisters and interesting façade. Pamplona’s patron saint is San Fermín, and in keeping with tradition, this energetic university city is always filled with tourists and locals, ready to keep the festivities going!

Accommodation: Pamplona (B, L) / Walking: 12 km or 7 mi

Day 5, August 10th: Pamplona to Uterga

We leave Pamplona and make our way to Cizur Menor, where we can see the Church of San Miguel Arcángel. To get the blood going, the Camino gives us our first steady climb to the crest of the Alto de Perdón, where we enjoy the views of the surrounding valleys. After coming down the hill, we regroup and return to Pamplona, where we have some time to explore the main square.

Accommodation: Pamplona (B, L, D) / Walking: 17 km or 11 mi

Day 6, August 11th: Uterga to Cirauqui

Our day begins with a special treat as we visit the 12th century Romanesque Church of Santa Maria de Eunate, one of the jewels of the Camino! Was this a stronghold for the Knights Templar? Following the scallop shells, we come to Puente la Reina, named in honor of Doña Mayor, who had the bridge built to make sure pilgrims coming from the French & Aragón routes, could continue walking safely.

Accommodation: Estella (B, L, D) / Walking: 16 km or 10 mi

Day 7, August 12th: Cirauqui to Estella THE SOLAR ECLIPSE

Leaving Cirauqui, we walk through rich agricultural fields of olives, grapes, almonds and fruit trees along ancient Roman roads and bridges leading us to our hotel in Estella.

In the evening, we will shuttle to a perfect viewing spot to experience the total solar eclipse. Bring your eclipse glasses!

Accommodation: Estella (B, L, D) / Walking: 14 km or 9 mi

Day 8, August 13th: Estella to Los Arcos

Walking out of Estella, we come across the ancient Benedictine Monastery of Irache, where the winery still honors the ancient tradition of providing free wine to pilgrims! Have a sip, but not too much as you still have KM's ahead! The tower of the 12th century Church of San Andrés lets you know you've arrived in Villamayor de Monjardín, before continuing on to Los Arcos, whose ancient entrance was known as the Gate of Shells and was the access point to the Jewish quarter.

Accommodation: Viana (B, L, D) / Walking: 22 km or 14 mi
